This paper was developed to answer several specific genealogical questions asked of the author. It was never my intention to completely trace the Justice family from the early Colonial period through time to the modern era but by design it deliberately stops in the mid-ninth century. Most data is well documented and cited and should form an excellent basis for additional study or research into the Justice family.

Please allow me to point out that I use abstracted wills frequently in this report due strictly to the ease in which they can be obtained. The author acknowledges that he has modified and changed some spelling and formatting of the many abstracted wills used within this document for the ease and better understanding of the reader. Further he recommends that whenever a particular abstract has special meaning or conveys special personal family data that he would recommend that you obtain a copy of the original will from the Clerk of the Court in which ever county the will was made as far more information will be available to aid you in your search of family history.

Lastly, the author did not use any census information or any Northampton or Accomack County deeds in forming this report. Those two references would be an excellent place to seek addition information should the reader desire more information on the Justice family.

I sincerely hope that you enjoy reading about this long existing Eastern Shore family.

The Justice Family of Virginia's Eastern Shore

First Generation

William Justice born ca. 1625 in England,¹ died ca. 1664 in Charles City County, Virginia married 26 May 1646 in Weynoke Parish, Charles City County, Virginia to Mary Frame born ca. 1630, daughter of Captain John Fame and there exist very strong circumstantial evidence that this William Justice and Mary Frame were the progenitors of the Justice family on the Eastern Shore of Virginia.

William must likely arrived in the New World in the year 1655 and by April of 1656 he had married Mary Frame and claimed his 1198 acres of land used to form his home which he called "Kittawon Plantation." It does not appear that William was indentured but that he was a man of some means as he was able to pay to transport 24 persons to Charles City County in the Colony of Virginia which was the basis for claiming his lands.

William Justice was granted 1198 acres of land in Charles City County near Flowerdew Hundred Creek on 26 Apr 1656 adjacent the land of Cheney Boice. A portion of this land was originally granted to Captain John Frame on 1 Sep 1643 and was now due the said Justice as marrying the daughter and heir of the said Frame and for transporting 24 persons into the Colony. ²

William sold off some of his land in the early 1660's. An unspecified acreage to William Harrison on 11 May 1661³ and 398 acres to George Potter on 30 Oct 1662.⁴ Reducing his plantation to approximately half of its original size. Whether these sales were done to raise new capital or not is unknown. But William Justice received an additional two parcels of land consisting of a 21 acres parcel and the other being 143 acres of land in Weynoke at the heads on the other side of Kittawain Creek in Charles City County on 20 Oct 1665 which was confirmed by an order issued on 16 Sep 1663. ⁵

William and Mary Frame Justice are thought to have had three sons, John, Ralph and Justinian Justice. John was the first child but the exact order of the remaining two sons is not known. It is known however, that John inherited from his father and married a Mary Unknown and Justinian married Mary Cannon. Both John and Justinian's children migrated from Charles City County moving first to the west across the state of Virginia, and then to the southwest into North Carolina, and eventually into South Carolina, Tennessee, Missouri and so forth. At this point this paper is more interested in following Ralph Justice, son of William Justice and Mary Frame.

William Justice had begun selling off his lands in Charles City County and Ralph being the second or third child of William and Mary knew that he stood little chance of inheriting land from his father. Mary died prior to William and after her death William married secondly to Mary Copell ca. 1654. William died at the age of 39 years and his probate was dated 3 Feb 1664.⁶ After William's death Mary the second wife of William married secondly to Thomas Copell.

Accomack County had recently been formed in the spring of 1663 and land was readily available, my presumption is that Ralph Justice preferred to move eastward to the Virginia Eastern Shore rather than remain in Charles City County and so at approximately 16 years of age he set out to find his fortune.

In the last week I received a copy of a report that followed certain members of Justice family that was written and prepared in 1986 by Mary Frances Carey. She also believed that Ralph Justice was a descendant of William Justice. I have used several paragraphs of her work below to help justify my belief that Ralph was a son of William Justice.

Mary Frances reported that "on 3 February 1663/4, his [William Justice] will was presented to Charles City County Court at Westover, for probate. Unfortunately, the recording of his will has not survived and the names of his heirs can only be determined from the circumstantial evidence of later records. Charles City County records do show that his widow Mary married (2) Thomas Chappell.” If you note previously I reported his name to be Thomas Copell.

“The names of John Justice and Justinian Justice appear in Charles City County records at Westover by 1688. They both owned land in the county, with no record of their having bought it or patented it, indicating it was inherited from William Justice and that they were his sons. Charles City County records, combined with Accomack County records, indicate that Ralph Justice was another son. It appears that Capt. John Frame had a son Arthur and another daughter Rebecca, besides the Mary who married (1) William Justice. Rebecca married William Ebourne, who was named as a headright in Northampton County, Virginia, in 1652 (Nugent, p. 267). He and his wife had both died by 17 December 1677, when “Mary the wife of Thomas Chappell dec’d before her death” requested Arthur Rollins “to have charge of Henry Eborne (Acco. Co. Orders 1676-1678, p. 86). The Same record states that Arthur Frame has taken unto his care, Rebecca, the daughter of William Eborne, “since the decease of Mary, the wife of Thomas Chappel”. This shows beyond any doubt, that William Justice’s widow, Mary Chappell, came to Accomack County, possibly to care for her sister and her sister’s children, and died here. It appeared she was accompanied by her brother, Arthur Frame, who was listed first as an Accomack County tithable in 1674. Arthur Frame had patented land, south of present-day Parksley, in 1673 (Whitelaw, p. 1191).”

“Mary Chappell would have left her older sons, who were grown by the late 1660s, in Charles City County. It is logical to suppose that a teen-age son would have come to the Eastern Shore with his mother and his uncle. While the records do not show this as fact, Ralph Justice’s name began to appear in Accomack County records at a time that would strongly suggest he was a younger son of William Justice and his wife, Mary Frame Justice Chappell.”

Second Generation

Ralph Justice was transported around 1668/9 to Accomack County by Anne Toft. Ralph was listed as head-right claimed by Anne Toft when she claimed 2000 acres of land in Accomack County on 30 Oct 1669 for transporting 40 persons.⁷ At the 23 Nov 1669, venue of the Accomack County Court Ann Toft had several of her servants [employees] age judged by the Court. Among those presented to the court was Ralph Justice whose age was judged to be 16 years and he was ordered by the Court to serve until he was 24 years of age.⁸

Ralph died in 1729 in Accomack County leaving a wife, Mary Abbott and several children as named in his last will.

4. Ralph Justice born ca 1653⁹ most likely in Charles City County, died 1729 in Accomack County, married ca. 1677 to Mary Abbott¹⁰ born ca. 1659, died 1744, daughter of John and Elizabeth Abbot. Colonial Families of the Eastern Shore of Virginia Volume One gives his marriage date as ca. 1675. However, servants were required to complete there indentures before marrying so I adjusted his marriage date to ca. 1677 to permit Ralph to finish his indenture to Ann Toft.

In 1691 Ralph Justice purchased 211 acres of land from William and Dorothy Jarman and in 1696 purchased an unspecified acreage from the same couple.¹¹ Ralph had been indentured to Ann Toft for his passage to Accomack County and was required to serve eight years. Ralph was also claimed as a head-right of Captain John West on Sep 1672 Upper Northampton Court [Accomack County].¹² Ralph later purchased his lands, indicating that he was an industrious sole capable of working and saving for his future.
