This paper was developed to answer several specific genealogical questions asked of the author. It was never my intention to completely trace the Justice family from the early Colonial period through time to the modern era but by design it deliberately stops in the mid-nineteenth century. Most data is well documented and cited and should form an excellent basis for additional study or research into the Justice family.

Please allow me to point out that I use abstracted wills frequently in this report due strictly to the ease in which they can be obtained. Whenever a particular abstract has special meaning or conveys special personal family data I would recommend that you obtain a copy of the original will from the Clerk of the Court in which ever county the will was made as far more information will be available to aid you in your search of family history.

Lastly, I did not use any census information or any Northampton or Accomack County deeds in forming this report. Those two references would be an excellent place to seek addition information should the reader desire more information on the Justice family.

I hope that you enjoy reading about this long existing Eastern Shore family.

The Justice Family of Virginia’s Eastern Shore

First Generation

William Justice born ca. 1625 in England, died ca. 1664 in Charles City County, Virginia married 26 May 1646 in Weynoke Parish, Charles City County, Virginia to Mary Frame born ca. 1630, daughter of Captain John Frame and were the progenitors of the Justice family in Virginia.

William must likely arrived in the New World in the year 1655 and by April of 1656 he had married Mary Frame and claimed his 1198 acres of land used to form his home which he called “Kittawon Plantation.” It does not appear that William was indentured but that he was a man of some means as he was able to pay to transport 24 persons to Charles City County in the Colony of Virginia which was the basis for claiming his lands.

William Justice was granted 1,198 acres of land in Charles City County near Flowerdew Hundred Creek on 26 Apr 1656 adjacent the land of Cheney Boice. A portion of this land was originally granted to Captain John Frame on 1 Sep 1643 and was now due the said Justice as marrying the daughter and heir of the said Frame and for transporting 24 persons into the Colony. 2
William sold off some of his land in the early 1660’s. An unspecified acreage to William Harrison on 11 May 1661 and 398 acres to George Potter on 30 Oct 1662. Reducing his plantation to approximately half of its original size. Whether these sales were done to raise new capital or not is unknown. But William Justice received an additional two parcels of land consisting of a 21 aces parcel and the other being 143 aces of land in Weynoke at the heads on the other side of Kittawain Creek in Charles City County on 20 Oct 1665 which was confirmed by an order issued on 16 Sep 1663.

William and Mary Frame Justice are thought to have had three sons, John, Ralph and Justinian Justice. John was the first child but the exact order of the remaining two sons is not known. It is known however, that John inherited from his father and married a Mary Unknown and Justinian married Mary Cannon. Both John and Justinian’s children migrated from Charles City County moving first to the west across the state of Virginia, and then to the southwest into North Carolina, and eventually into South Carolina, Tennessee, Missouri and so forth. At this point this paper is more interested in following Ralph Justice, son of William Justice and Mary Frame.

William Justice had begun selling off his lands in Charles City County and Ralph being the second or third child of William and Mary knew that he stood little chance of inheriting land from his father. William died at the age of 39 years and his probate was dated 3 Feb 1664. After William’s death Mary married secondly to Thomas Copell.

Accomack County had recently been formed in the spring of 1663 and land was readily available, my presumption is that Ralph Justice preferred to move eastward to the Virginia Eastern Shore rather than remain in Charles City County and so at approximately 16 years of age he set out to find his fortune.

The author has modified and changed some spelling and formatting of abstracted wills used within this document for the ease and better understanding of the reader.

Second Generation

Ralph Justice was transported around 1668/9 to Accomack County by Anne Toft. Ralph was listed as head-right claimed by Anne Toft when she claimed 2000 acres of land in Accomack County on 30 Oct 1669 for transporting 40 persons. At the 23 Nov 1669, venue of the Accomack County Court Ann Toft had several of her servants [employees] age judged by the Court. Among those presented to the court was Ralph Justice whose age was judged to be 16 years and he was ordered by the Court to serve until he was 24 years of age.
Ralph died in 1729 in Accomack County leaving a wife, Mary Abbott and several children as named in his last will.

1. Ralph Justice born ca 1653 most likely in Charles City County, died 1729 in Accomack County, married ca. 1677 to Mary Abbott born ca. 1659, died 1744, daughter of John and Elizabeth Abbot. Colonial Families of the Eastern Shore of Virginia Volume One gives his marriage date as ca. 1675. However, servants were required to complete there indentures before marrying so I adjusted his marriage date to ca. 1677 to permit Ralph to finish his indenture to Ann Toft.

In 1691 Ralph Justice purchased 211 acres of land from William and Dorothy Jarman and in 1696 purchased an unspecified acreage from the same couple. Ralph had been indentured to Ann Toft for his passage to Accomack County and was required to serve eight years. Ralph was also claimed as a head-right of Captain John West on Sep 1672 Upper Northampton Court [Accomack County]. Ralph later purchased his lands, indicating that he was an industrious sole capable of working and saving for his future.

1st 10 Jul 1812 to Rose Taylor.

Nancy Taylor and Betsey Justice are the only living heirs of Giles Taylor, seaman in the Virginia Navy in the Revolutionary War.

It appears that the order heretofore made certifying that Betsey Justice, wife of Teackle Justice, is one of the heirs at law of Giles Taylor who served in the Virginia Navy in the Revolutionary Way, is erroneous, and that Rosey Justice, wife of Teackle Justice should have been certified instead of Betsey Justice, and that Giles Taylor died intestate. 26 July 1841.

2nd ca. 1831 to Tabitha Lewis died 1843, daughter of George Lewis.
