EXHIBIT A

GENERATION

- I. HENRY BAGWELL came to Virginia in the "Deliverance" in 1608 (Hattan's Commentaries). He makes deposition February 19, 1633 that he is 43 years old, therefore born in 1590 and 18 years of age when he came to Virginia (Virginia County Records, Vol. 2). He married Alice Stratton, widow of Thomas Stratton, before 1638 (see Northampton County Records, January 1, 1636, when Alice, wife of Henry Bagwell, petitions Court for pay of 200 A. for transportation of persons to Virginia). She was the daughter of Mrs. Ann Hawkins (her Will, Vol. 3, Northampton County Records, also statement of Mr. Stratton Nottingham, genealogist). Henry Bagwell was a member of the House of Burgesses 1629-1630 (Hening, Vol. I, pp. 147-149 and 178-179. Also Wise's History of the Eastern Shore of Virginia, p. 41). Henry Bagwell, gent., was appointed first clerk of the monthly Court at Old Plantation, 1632, and held the office continuously until 1640 (Wise, p. 42 and p. 100). Henry Bagwell had business in Court May 12, 1648. This is the last record found of him (Northampton County Records). He died about 1648 or 1650 and was, therefore, about 58 or 60 years old at the time of his death. Henry Bagwell and Alice Stratton Bagwell had issue: John and Thomas Bagwell (she also had a son, Thomas Stratton, see Northampton County Records of January 1, 1636, when she assigns 100 A. of land to her son, Thomas Stratton, and 100 A. to her daughter, Mary Chillicott, children of her former marriage).
- II. JOHN BAGWELL and THOMAS BAGWELL - (October 13, 1659, Thomas Stratton's Will mentions his half brothers, John and Thomas Bagwell). April 28, 1667, John Bagwell and Thomas Bagwell sold 115 A. of land on Old Plantation Creek. John heired this land from his father, Henry Bagwell, dec'd, and given by the said Henry Bagwell to his son, John, as a deed of gift. Bond dated and recorded April 28, 1667. Acknowledged in Court by John and Thomas Bagwell. On February 28, 1667, John Bagwell married Ann the Elder and Thomas Bagwell married Ann the Younger. Ann Bagwell, the Elder, wife of John, and Ann Bagwell, the Younger, wife of Thomas, relinquish their rights February 28, 1667. wit. Agnes Powell. May 6, 1668, Thomas and Ann Bagwell of Metompkin, Accomack County, Virginia, make a loan to John Bagwell of Northampton County, Virginia. August 5, 1684, John Bagwell makes deposition that he is 46 years old (Accomack County Records, Vol. 7, p. 156). Ann Bagwell, his wife, makes deposition that she is 38 years old at this same date. November 18, 1685, Wills and Deeds - 1676-1700, p. 433, John Bagwell's Will, probated November 30, 1686. To his wife, Ann, during her widowhood. To his son, Henry, one-half (½) planation purchased of Thomas Bagwell, and one third (1/3) of the Island (Cedar). To his son, Alexander, the same. To his daughter, control of property when she was 17 years of age. (She probably married a Revel.) Executors: Brother Thomas Bagwell and friend, William Burton. (William Burton married Ann Stratton, daughter of John Bagwell's half brother, Thomas Stratton.)
- III. HENRY BAGWELL'S WILL - August 12, 1734, (Accomack County Records, Vol. 1729-1737, Part I, p. 384), to his son, Thomas, land on Old Plantation Creek. To his son, Henry, land. To his grandson, Charles Bagwell, son of his son, John Bagwell --. To his daughters, Ann, Tobuta and Elizabeth, who married Isaac Rogers.
- IV. HENRY BAGWELL'S WILL (son of Henry) March. I, 1735; To son, Heli, the home plantation. To son, Spencer --. To wife Sabra, daughter of John Dix --. To mother, Margaret, He married Sophia Dix. Heli Bagwell on March 31, 1761, as a bachelor, willed property to mother, Sabra --, and to brother Spencer ---, Vol. 1798-1800.

To son, William, Sophia Bagwell legates to remainder of Spencer Bagwell's estate, which is in her hands. P341. Vol. 1796-1798, p. 201. June 4, 1797 (Sophia was probably a daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Wharton Bagwell, both of whom died in 1748. They had a son, Isaiah, and a daughter, Sophia. Isaiah was Administrator. "In acct. with Sophia Bagwell settlement," 1797. Perhaps he was Sophia Bagwell's brother). To Heli Bagwell, her grandson, (son of son, Heli, who died in the West Indies), to grandson, Henry, to grandchildren, Jessie and Nancy Bonniwell, to daughter, Sallie Bull. Same Vol., p. 355, Cash L.2175 9d left in the hands of Jacob Ross, Administrator. Legacy to Heli Bagwell by Sophia Bagwell. From the obituary notice written by Rev. C. C. He married Ann (Nancy) Drummond, and Heley Drummond Bagwell was the only child of this marriage. Some short time after his son's birth, Capt. Heley Bagwell died in the West Indies of yellow fever. His widow, Ann (Nancy), soon died of sorrow and their young son, Heley D. Bagwell, was reared by his maternal grandmother. (A copy of the Advocate containing the full text of this notice is owned by Mr. Healey Parker Bagwell Rue, Belle Haven, Virginia, who is a lineal descendant of this line).
